REMARKS BY DR. JAMES PAPPAS, VICE PROVOST FOR CONTINUING EDUCATION AND PUBLIC SERVICE

Dr. Pappas discussed some of CE&PS's new programmatic initiatives. The contract to provide armed forces education through Advanced Programs was renewed for five more years, which will bring approximately $1.2 million to the University. CE&PS was awarded a $2 million grant to provide and coordinate chemical dependency programs in 10 states through the new Southwest Regional Center for Drug Free Schools and Communities. A contract was signed with the State Department of Corrections to provide training to corrections professionals. In the area of business and economic development, CE&PS will be increasing the training activities for bankers, continuing the economic development training institute, creating an institute for certifying Chamber of Commerce executives. Some new credit and non-credit on-campus programs are being developed. CE&PS will offer programs for gifted and talented pre-collegiate students and computer interaction programs for people who cannot leave the home. A grant was received to provide training for the Department of Transportation and FAA at OCCE. Dr. Pappas pointed out that the summer school program will be administered through CE&PS this year.

Prof. Cohen asked about recent actions that have been taken to regularize procedures for study tours. Dr. Pappas responded that study-travel programs that are University-sponsored must be cleared through curricular committees, Committees A, or Department Chairs.

FACULTY SENATE CHAIR'S REPORT, PROF. LARRY CANTER

Prof. Canter called attention to the handouts summarizing the activities of the Legislative Visits and Speakers Service programs for the past year. The Legislative Visits program was coordinated by Professors Tom James (Political Science/Science and Public Policy) and Dave Morgan (Political Science) and consisted of bringing state legislators to campus to acquaint them with various types of research and teaching programs (see Appendix I). The Speakers Service, coordinated by Ms. Judy Osburn (Alumni Affairs), experienced its most active year in terms of the number of presentations. Seventy-eight presentations were made by 21 speakers, compared to last year's 44 presentations by 23 speakers. The most popular topics were energy-related, political tv ads, and constitutional law. Forty-four organizations used the service, representing a wide variety of civic, professional, and social groups. Prof. Canter thanked the faculty for taking time to participate in these two programs.

The Executive Committee met with President Horton on April 19. The President reported that no decision had been reached yet on the Regents' budget analyst and Chief Legal Counsel positions. The Executive Committee expressed concern about the short turnaround time for budget planning. The start date for salary increases will be July 1, in contrast to the previous date of August 15, and will apply to anyone who is paid during the summer.

On April 19 the Executive Committee met with OU Regent Chairman Kemp to discuss the need for better communication between the Regents and the faculty.

One of the items the Executive Committee discussed with Provost Wadlow on April 20 was the search for a new Dean of Liberal Studies, which should be completed soon. A new edition of the Faculty Handbook will be available in the fall.

During a meeting with Vice President Elbert on April 22, the Executive Committee brought up several matters, including the concerns raised in last month’s Senate meeting regarding the parking fee increase. (Note: The proposal to increase the fee from $35 to $55 was subsequently changed to $45.)

Prof. Canter explained that there are several carryover items to be addressed by the Senate next year, such as indirect cost allocation, auxiliary accounts overhead rate, admissions standards, general education requirements, and book store operation. Prof. Cohen will distribute a list of these items this summer.

Prof. Canter called attention to the summary of the activities of the committee on classroom maintenance, which will continue its work next year, and the listing of the newly-elected senators (see Appendixes II and III).

"FOCUS ON EXCELLENCE"

Prof. Ron Kantowski (Physics and Astronomy) spoke on the work of Prof. Michael Morrison, Professor of Physics and Astronomy. Prof. Morrison, who has been at OU eleven years, received a Regents' teaching award in 1984, was elected a fellow of the American Physical Society this spring, and has been selected as a Faculty Administrative Fellow in the Provost's Office for 1988-89. His research specialty is electron interactions with molecules, and he has continual external funding. He has written a widely-used textbook, served as graduate studies chairman and computer committee chairman in his department, and has been the Chair of the Research Council and the Arts and Sciences Promotions Committee.

ELECTION, UNIVERSITY AND CAMPUS COUNCILS, COMMITTEES, AND BOARDS

The Faculty Senate approved by acclamation the Committee on Committees nominations to fill end-of-the-year vacancies on University and Campus Councils, Committees and Boards (see Appendix IV). Prof. Canter expressed his appreciation for the work of the Committee on Committees members, Professors Gary Cohen (chair), Steve Ballard, Harold Conner, George Cozad, Sub Gollahalli, and George Letchworth.
Prof. Ron Kantowski, Chair of the Committee on Faculty Welfare, explained that the committee had acted as an information gatherer for the Senate the past year. Prof. Kantowski reported on the status of matters which the committee had looked into for the year (see Appendix V). There will probably be some revisions in the premiums and/or benefits of the Blue Cross/Blue Shield PPO option and the dental plan because of rising costs. Prof. Kantowski encouraged faculty who have any problems with dental insurance claims to report those to the Faculty Welfare Committee. In compliance with the new smoking policy, certain areas of each building are to be designated as smoking permitted. Complaints or questions about the new smoking policy should be directed to the department chair. The legislature seems likely to take some action to solve the financial problems of the state teachers' retirement fund. In all probability, the teachers' health insurance will no longer be funded by OTRS, and the $25,000/$40,000 split will be merged into one figure. TIAA-CREF made certain changes in October, which should take care of Prof. Sherril Christian's request for more options in the OU contributions to retirement. Prof. Kantowski thanked the members of the committee, Professors Joel Dietrich, John Fagan, Peter Kutner, and Susan Vehik, for their contributions. He noted that Prof. Vehik served as a liaison to the Employment Benefits Committee, which helped the Welfare Committee function much better.

Prof. Canter reported that because of a delay in receiving some data for the report on faculty salaries, the Compensation Committee had to postpone the report until fall.

Prof. Andy Magid (Mathematics) was elected, by acclamation, as Chair-elect, and Prof. Gail Tompkins (Instructional Leadership) was elected, by acclamation, as Secretary of the Faculty Senate for 1988-89.

The following faculty were elected to positions on Senate standing committees:

Certificates were also presented to other senators whose terms were expiring and to the outgoing members of the Executive Committee.

RESOLUTION OF APPRECIATION TO PROFESSOR LARRY W. CANTER

The Faculty Senate approved the following resolution expressing appreciation to Professor Canter, outgoing Senate Chair:

WHEREAS, Professor Larry Canter has served the Norman Campus Faculty Senate with distinction, dedication, and patience, more often at a gallop than at a canter,

WHEREAS, in addressing the University Regents he has always upheld the noble mission of the faculty,

WHEREAS, he has demonstrated, as our leader, great courage and self-sacrifice, nearly to the point of immolation,

WHEREAS, he has always tried to present the faculty views with dignity and style, so that we never be unkempt,

WHEREAS, in his dealings with the University administration he has been always forthright, but not too frank,

WHEREAS, as a scholar of ground water science, he has oft demonstrated that he knows the difference between a deep well and the shaft in winning support for the faculty,

THEREFORE, because the water truly runs deep with our chairman, Larry Canter, be it resolved that his trace shall never disappear from the Senate aquifer.

Prof. Gary Cohen, incoming Senate Chair presented him with an engraved plaque. Prof. Cohen then assumed the office of Chair.
Prof. Herstand pointed out that there is a concerted movement on campus to rename DeBarr Hall because of Prof. DeBarr's activity in the Ku Klux Klan. He reported that at an April 26 meeting, the Chemistry faculty unanimously approved a statement strongly supporting efforts to rename DeBarr Hall. Prof. Herstand then moved that the Faculty Senate approve a resolution "to support the statement of the Chemistry Department faculty and, in so doing, join the spirit and intent of the actions of the Student Congress and the Graduate Student Senate."

Prof. Tepker said that all he knew about DeBarr was that he was a member of the Ku Klux Klan. Noting that Supreme Court Justice Hugo Black was once a Klan member, Prof. Tepker said he would like to know what redeeming qualities DeBarr had that led the University to name a building for him, before voting to relegate him, Soviet-style, to the position of a non-person. Prof. Herstand said DeBarr was one of the first four faculty members at OU. Prof. Cohen said a reference report prepared by the Western History Collections in 1985 (see Appendix VI) did not indicate the grounds for naming the chemistry building after DeBarr or when that took place, but did mention that DeBarr had a major role in establishing instruction in chemistry, physics, the natural sciences and in helping organize the medical school. Prof. Cohen also read the report's account of DeBarr's Klan activities. Prof. Cohen pointed out that when a matter of substance has come before the Senate in the past, the Senate has opted to wait a month before voting. He suggested that the Senate could refer this matter to a committee and ask for a report at the September Senate meeting. Prof. Economou moved to delay action until the next meeting in order to gather additional information. Prof. Herstand said he was opposed to a delay because the Chemistry faculty, the Graduate Student Senate, and the Student Congress had all voted in favor of changing the name. Prof. Zelby noted that this was the first time this matter had been brought before the Senate, and the Senate should not to act simply because other bodies on campus had adopted a particular viewpoint. Prof. Wiggins said he believed action should be taken now before the issue was settled without the endorsement of the Senate. Prof. Nicewander said another reason to settle this now was so the changing of the building's name could be incorporated in the centennial plans. The motion to delay failed in a voice vote.

During the discussion of the main motion, Prof. Kenderdine argued that renaming the building would have the effect of sanitizing history and would open up opportunities to repeat mistakes. He commented that sixty years ago it might have been acceptable for a faculty member to be a member of the Klan, although, admittedly, DeBarr had become too visible. Prof. Herstand pointed out that DeBarr was not just a Klansman, but a leader in the Klan. Prof. Tepker said he believed there ought to be some things on campus to serve as reminders. Prof. Brown noted that there must have been some good reasons for naming the building for DeBarr. Prof. Herstand suggested that situations such as this and flying the Confederate flag at the state Capitol show a certain insensitivity in the state. Prof. Turk said she agreed that it was important to have reminders of what was, but was concerned that those reminders might be taken as a suggestion of what is. Prof. Faibisoff agreed that we do not need to be reminded of racism. Prof. Economou explained that the reason for naming a building after an individual has to do with a respect for that individual's contribution to the institution, region, profession, and academic discipline. If DeBarr's Klan activities are viewed in the present perspective, there does not seem to be justification for naming a building after him.
Prof. Weaver-Meyers pointed out that regardless of what DeBarr was honored for before, it is not what he is remembered for today, and that this is an opportunity to name the building for someone who is more appropriate. Prof. Zelby said the question is not whether DeBarr Hall should be renamed but whether the Faculty Senate should go on record without due deliberation. Prof. Wiggins maintained that the Senate had enough information. The main motion was approved, 30 to 4.

Prof. Magid said he would like to see some questions answered—for instance, why the building was named for DeBarr—and suggested that the information be published in the Senate Journal, so that there will be an historical record of why the Senate took this kind of action. Prof. Cohen offered to ask a small ad hoc committee to collect the information and report back to the Senate.

ADJOURNMENT

The Faculty Senate adjourned at 5:20 p.m. The next regular session of the Senate will be held at 3:30 p.m., on Monday, September 19, 1988, in the Conoco Auditorium, Neustadt Wing, Bizzell Library.

The Standing Committee to Oversee Classroom Maintenance Operations was created at the direction of the Provost to address a recognized need with respect to maintenance and improvement of classroom space on the OU campus.

The basic need which the Committee intends to address is the establishment of a functional line of communication between the users of academic space, i.e., the faculty, and those administrative offices responsible for maintenance and improvement of that academic space. The operational premise of the Committee is that it is the faculty who can best set the priorities needed to sustain and improve academic space.

With respect to maintenance, the Committee has already approved plans to upgrade maintenance procedures carried out by Physical Plant. Additionally, the Committee has distributed to academic users information on how to report problems in classrooms. These procedures will be reviewed periodically, and changes will be instituted as required.

Concerning improvements, the Committee will have direct input into the allocation of funds devoted to renovation of space and the acquisition of instructional support materials. It is the hope of the Committee that a functional line of communication can be established between the faculty and the Committee. This will serve to establish the priorities, based on faculty needs, for the allocation of funds available.

To this end, the Committee is now developing a survey that will be submitted to academic units concerning their opinions and needs with respect to academic space and support equipment.

Two points should be emphasized: First, the Committee has been set up to provide an on-going mechanism for faculty input; the needs of the campus cannot be dealt with on a "one-time" basis. Secondly, the process cannot function without faculty support and participation. The recommendations that the Committee will make on matters of classroom upkeep and renovation will be no improvement over current procedures unless the academic units on campus can provide good information on which to base those recommendations.

The Committee intends to make every effort to establish a good working relationship with the faculty. Without that relationship, any effort to improve the instructional environment on campus will be severely handicapped.

Committee Members: Voting - Jeff Stark (Classroom Scheduling) [Chair], Stewart Ryan (Physics & Astronomy), Robert Knox (CEES), Tom Miller (Psychology), Steven Livesey (History of Science), Ben Kinder (Physical Plant), Mike Moorman (A&E Services); Ex officio - Jerry Weber (Instructional Services/University College), Margaret Smith (Instructional Services Center)

TO: Senate
FROM: R. Kantowski
SUBJECT: Welfare Committee Report
DATE: May 2, 1988

Committee Members: Joel Dietrich, John Fagan, Ron Kantowski, Susan Vehik, and Peter Kutner

The Welfare Committee has been charged with following a rather large number of issues for the Senate this year. We have acted primarily as an information gatherer for the Small Executive Committee, only occasionally recommending action or the lack there of. The principal changes that have occurred in the course of the year, and our current recommendations/warnings are:

1. The PPO-BC/BS health insurance change that took place last summer in shifting responsibility for pre-admission certification from the doctor-patient to the Oklahoma hospital removed conflicts between the the PPO patient-doctor BC/BS. Now, however, some hospitals are not willing to accept current fee restrictions imposed by BC/BS and have withdrawn their BC/BS membership. We see problems on the horizon if there is mass revolt by the hospitals. This problem is not unrelated to the financial loss suffered by BC/BS as carrier of our PPO option. We stand to see 30% increases in our PPO insurance costs next year—either that or a reduction of benefits. Patients with more serious ailments are covered by PPO and of our three options (PruCare-TakeCare are the others) it is the one running in the red. The warning here is that we may well have destroyed our group financial leverage by having three insurance options corresponding to degree of illness.

2. The first year of our Prudential DMO (Dental Maintenance Organization) insurance coverage has not been profitable for the carrier. We expect to see increased rates and/or a reluctance to pay claims. The faculty should report such difficulties to the OU insurance office and ultimately to the Welfare Committee if not resolved.

3. The New OU Smoking Policy is in effect. Your complaints, questions, etc. should be directed to your Chair and/or Committee A. Implementing the policy does not seem to be a high priority at the departmental level.

4. As you know significant changes have taken place in the Oklahoma Teachers Retirement System. Because of the early retirement options and incentives, coupled with the increased benefits as well as funding state teachers health insurance from the TRS fund it is currently headed for the red by 2004. For the most part the committee has acted only as an observer, reporting noted changes to the Senate Small Executive Committee. At this point we feel that the legislature is sensitive to the problem and will take appropriate action to guarantee solvency without significant reductions in benefits. We do not expect an immediate fix but rather a series of changes starting with removal of the non-retired teachers health insurance cost from the fund. It is likely that in the future the optional $25,000 - $40,000 limit will coalesce and be at a single cost to us rather than the 5% - 10% split. Numerous other changes are being discussed. We have encouraged our legislators to take responsible action to guarantee solvency.

5. In September Professor Christian urged the Senate to consider additional retirement options beyond TIAA-CREF. The primary objection to TIAA-CREF being the lack of an asset transfer option from the more secure TIAA fund to the other options. The Welfare Committee considered the request and suggested at its October 27 meeting that no action be taken on the request at that time. The reasons for our position were:

(i). We wanted to maintain the position that OU contributed retirement monies were untouchable by anyone, and for sure the last impression we wanted to convey to the governing board was that these monies were given to faculty to manipulate in the market for possible gain.

(ii). By October changes were under way in TIAA-CREF which would allow some flexibility in newly contributed monies. These changes were brought about by investor pressure such as articulated by Professor Christian. The Welfare Committee felt the new options would at least reduce some of the calls for change.

(ii). Finally, the committee felt that after the October crash of the stock market, when those of us in CREF took huge losses, the number of persons desiring to transfer from TIAA to CREF would likely diminish.

This year the Welfare Committee has had one of its members (Susan Vehik) attending the EBC (University Employment Benefits Committee) as a non-voting member. This liaison along with the very helpful attitude of the new personnel director (Don Flegal) has greatly improved the flow of information between committees as well as to the Senate Small Executive Committee. We suggest the Senate continue this liaison.
The following is a compilation of facts concerning Edwin DeBarr's career at the University of Oklahoma:

--- August, 1882: DeBarr, a graduate of the Michigan State Normal School at Ypsilanti, of the Michigan Agricultural College, and of the University of Michigan, was selected by President Boyd to be professor of chemistry and physics.

--- DeBarr had taught in the public schools of Michigan and was at the time professor of chemistry and biology at Albion College.

--- He had special training for teaching chemistry, physics, biology and pharmacy. His annual starting salary was set at $1,500.

--- He earned his Master's from Lansing State and, in 1899, completed requirements for the doctor's degree at the University of Michigan.

--- In 1908-1909, He was considered for the position of the dean of the Graduate College.

--- DeBarr, along with Dean Bobo and Dr. Capshaw, conducted the courses in the first two years of medicine given on the campus at Norman.

--- From 1909-1923 DeBarr was Vice President of the University of Oklahoma.

--- Daily Oklahoman, August 16, 1922.

The Board of Regents of the University of Oklahoma censured Vice President Edwin DeBarr on August 15, 1922 for his aggressive political activity during the absence of President Straton Brooks. DeBarr had allegedly organized the Klan vote for Robert H. Wilson, a Democratic candidate for governor.

In the spring of 1922 DeBarr allegedly delivered an anti-Catholic speech before a class of graduating students in Okmulgee.

Oklahoma Leader (Oklahoma City), June 18, 1923.

The Board of Regents of the University of Oklahoma quietly dismissed Vice-President Edwin DeBarr. On July 1, 1923, he was to go on a leave of absence with the "definite" understanding that he would not be re-employed.

DeBarr had been criticized for his activities as a state officer of the Klan and as a hired witness for the Oklahoma Natural Gas Corporation Commission. The utility had allegedly paid him one hundred dollars a day for "technical" testimony.

In regards to his affiliation with the Ku Klux Klan, DeBarr’s titles indicate that in February, 1924, he was a member of the Imperial Klondicium, a former grand dragon and a former exalted cyclops.

Tuesday, October 10, 1950:

91-year-old DeBarr was attacked at his home in Norman. He was listed in fair condition after suffering a fractured left hand and deep cuts about the head which were inflicted by a tire tool. DeBarr identified his attacker as Robert Rose, husband of his grand-daughter.

December, 1950:

The only surviving member of the original university faculty, Dr. Edwin DeBarr, 91, died at 5 p.m. Monday, Dec. 18 in Ellison infirmary after suffering a heart attack December 9. Let it be noted that DeBarr, who started teaching at the age of 16, organized four of the university's schools, pharmacy, chemistry, physics and petroleum engineering. He was the founder and charter member of the Oklahoma pharmaceutical society having served as secretary for many years. He was also the oldest Elk and Odd Fellow in Oklahoma City and a member of the state 32nd Mason team.

Dr. Edwin DeBarr was survived by two daughters, Mrs. Helen C. Runge and Mrs. Hilda Mary Charters. His wife died October 31, 1948.
